dimension. The legislature also finds and determines that the children of the city of Milwaukee are disproportionately represented in the state's foster care system and that, because those youth are so disproportionately represented, the state has a specific concern in providing good substitute parental care for those children and in helping those children grow up to be self-sufficient and productive adults. In addition, the legislature finds and determines that the children's village model of substitute care provided by SOS Children's Villages provides good substitute parental care for children and helps children grow up to be self-sufficient and productive adults by keeping together sibling groups that would otherwise be separated, providing one foster home for a child until the child is reunified with his or her family or achieves some other permanent placement, providing professionally trained caregivers for children, especially children with special needs, and providing not just a home but an entire community in which a child may grow.
